

Silvermont to host Better Business Bureau representative

The Silvermont Senior Center will host Julie Goodwin, regional director of the Better Business Bureau of WNC, on Oct. 9 for a free seminar about how to identify and prevent senior fraud and scams.

This event will be held from 10 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. and is open to the public.

The BBB Consumer Fraud Awareness Program's mission is to assist seniors in recognizing fraudulent offerings and avoiding scams.

Learn about how the BBB is a valuable resource for consumers and receive free handouts from the BBB and the Federal Trade Commission.

For any questions or to register, please contact Brenda Skeffington at (828) 884-3166 or Brenda.skeffington@transylvaniacounty.org.